

Agricultural Specialist

The American Embassy is inviting applications for an Agricultural Specialist at a developmental level. The incumbent acts as the principal advisor to the Agricultural Attaché on all agricultural matters affecting the marketing of the U.S. agricultural goods and services in Malaysia and the region. The incumbent has primary responsibilities for agricultural commodity and trade policy reporting covering a broad range of commodities of significant production, market development and/ or trade policy interest to the U.S. Department of Agriculture and the U.S. Government including biotechnology issues.

Applicants must have a degree in Agricultural Economics, Economics, Business Administration, International Trade or a related field and have a minimum of five years of progressively responsible experience in market and policy analysis and reporting, program management, technical and market development programs. The incumbent must be fluent in written and oral English and have good working knowledge in at least one other Malaysian language.

The minimum starting annual salary is RM72,171. Benefits include a two-month bonus, a higher EPF employer contribution rate, group life and health insurance, etc. Please write in (with phone number and expected salary but do not include photo) to the Human Resources Office, P.O. Box 10035, 50700 Kuala Lumpur by July 7, 2011. Only short listed candidates will be notified.